My Dear Students

As we embark on 2026, I convey my New Year wishes to you all. I am excited to share this III Edition of NYAYADWEEP. Hope you have done well in your semester exams. As the even semester commenced, plan your academic schedule meaningfully. Exams may be in the middle of April/May. You need to plan your time every passing day to improve yourself to excel in life in an ever-changing world. High-profile dignitaries visited ALC, recently. Notable among them are Ms. Vijaya Rahtakar, Chairperson of the National Commission for Women, Dr. Tuli Roy Ombudsmen designate Deputy General Manager of RBI; Prof. Balaraj Chauhan, former Vice Chancellor of NLUs Bhopal, Lucknow, and Jabalpur and Justice Sabhyasachi Bhattacharya, Honorable Judge of the Calcutta High Court. Shri Bishnu Pada Ray, honorable Member of Parliament (Loksabha) also invited as a chief guest for the Viksit Bharat Youth Parliament District Round selections held at our college.

Similarly, ALC has conducted two seminars during this period. ALC, in association with (Prasar Bharati) AIR and Doordarshan Sri Vijaya Puram, conducted one seminar titled “Vigilance: A Shared Responsibility.” ALC, in association with the National Women Commission, conducted a one-day sensitization program on “Gender Justice and Digital Safety”; the same has been inaugurated by the Chairperson of NCW.

I congratulate the winners of various competitions held during the period, which includes Vigilance Awareness Week, Viksit Bharat-Youth Parliament-2026, District Rounds, and National Law Day. I congratulate Ms Aliaya Majeed who attended National Unity Day at New Delhi. It is for you to keep your spirits high and participate in every competition to keep yourself vibrant and active.

ALC students are second to none when it comes to participation in various events. We conducted a National Unity Day march and rallies in connection with National Law Day and World AIDS Day as well. Our students volunteered at the National Lok Adalat held at the High Court Complex on 13th December. We are proud of our achievements and are committed to continuous improvement.

Our dedicated faculty team is working tirelessly to create a vibrant learning environment.

I encourage you to engage with your peers, faculty, and the wider legal community through various events and activities to enrich yourself.

Let's work together to make 2026 successful.

Prof. (Dr.) P.V.N Sarma
Principal

NCW Chairperson Mrs. Vijaya Rahatkar inaugurates Gender Sensitization Awareness Workshop

A workshop on Gender Sensitization and Cyber Awareness was held on 28th October 2025 at Andaman Law College, addressed by Mrs. Vijaya Rahatkar, Chairperson, National Commission for Women (NCW).

Mrs. Rahatkar highlighted that Campus Calling is NCW's flagship initiative aimed at ensuring the physical and digital safety of young women. She stressed the importance of awareness among students, noting that physical safety is safeguarded under the POSH Act, while cyber safety requires alertness and responsible use of digital platforms. With the rapid growth of AI and evolving digital risks, she urged young women to remain vigilant against online fraud, misuse of personal data, and cyber-traps. The program aimed to equip students with essential knowledge on safe internet practices, digital hygiene, and gender sensitivity.

NCW Chairperson Mrs. Vijaya Rahatkar nominated Ms. Bineta Sen Baa ( Ist Year B.A.LL.B.) Ms. Suparna Sarkar ( II B.A.LL.B.), Ms. K. Artiga ( III B.A.LL.B.) Ms. Keerthana Shree V.K. ( IV, B.A.LL.B.) Ms. Priya Dharsini (V, B.A.LL.B.) as NCW Ambassadors to spread the message of Physical Safety and Digital Safety of Young Women as part of Campus Calling Campaign launched by the NCW.

NCW Chairperson visited Free Legal Aid Services Clinic of Andaman Law College and appreciated the services being offered. She interacted with women faculty and other women offices at the Clinic. Another member NCW Dr Muzumdar signed on the visitors book.

ALC Girl Aliya Majeed Represents Islands at National Unity Day in New Delhi

Ms. Aliya Majeed, IV Year B.A.LL.B. Student of Andaman Law College, represented the Andaman & Nicobar Islands at the National Unity Day celebrations held at Samvidhan Sadan, New Delhi, on 31st October 2025, commemorating the birth anniversary of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel. She was part of a 36-member student delegation drawn from various States and Union Territories, out of which only 12 participants were selected to speak on assigned themes. Aliya was chosen to deliver a speech on “The Life and Contributions of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel.”

As part of the programme, she got an opportunity to visit the New Parliament Building, followed by the main event at the Old Parliament Building. During the session, Aliya had the opportunity of meeting the Vice President of India, the Speaker of the Lok Sabha, and several other distinguished dignitaries. The visit also included educational tour to India Gate, the National War Memorial, and the Rashtriya Swachhata Kendra. Ms. Aliya described the experience as inspiring and enriching, stating that the national platform strengthened her confidence and provided invaluable exposure to democratic processes and national leadership. She thanked the A & N Administration, MyBharat and Andaman Law College for the opportunity provided.

District Round 'Youth Parliament' on a grand note

District Round Youth Parliament was held at Andaman Law College on 28th November 2025. Hon'ble Member of Parliament (Lok Sabha) Shri Bishnu Pada Ray inaugurated the programme as the Chief Guest. The MP encouraged the youth to be vibrant, vigilant and viksit, and urged them to showcase their talent and bring laurels to the A&N Islands. He formally opened the elocution competition after lighting the ceremonial lamp with student representatives. The event was organised under the guidance of MY Bharat, with Joint Director Mr. Sukha Ranjan Biswas highlighting the important role of youth as change-makers for national development. Participants from various colleges of South Andaman took part in the District Round selections, competing on the theme "50 Years of Emergency and the Lessons for Democracy."

Mr. Rashid Alam, Registrar, Calcutta High Court at Circuit Bench Port Blair, graced the valedictory session as Chief Guest and distributed certificates to the top ten winners. A total of 102 participants from various colleges took part in the elocution competition. ALC and TGCE secured five positions each. The jury panel—Dr. R.V.R. Murthy, Vishal Yadav, Dr. R.G.S. Baghel, and Sanjib Kumar Roy—evaluated the participants based on clarity, content, and delivery. Ten students qualified for the State Level Youth Parliament: TGCE students Himani Wagh, R. Sanjana, Disha Singh, J. Kavya Sree Sai, and Akansha Chelek Chela, and ALC students Komal Preet Kaur, P. Aliya Majeed, K. Nandini, M. Akansha, and Ashlee Chacko.

RBI Integrated Ombudsman Scheme 2021

Dr. Tuli Roy assures speedy response

An awareness session on the Integrated Ombudsman Scheme (IOS), 2021) was conducted by the Reserve Bank of India at Andaman Law College on 30 November 2025. The programme was led by Dr. Tuli Roy, Deputy General Manager, RBI, who explained that an Ombudsman is an independent authority that receives and resolves customer complaints against financial institutions in a fair and time-bound manner. She highlighted how the IOS 2021 simplifies grievance redressal mechanism by merging all earlier schemes into a single, accessible framework.

Mr. Rakesh Paik, Assistant General Manager, RBI, conducted the technical session, detailing the procedure for filing complaints through RBI's Complaint Management System (CMS) when issues remain unresolved by banks or financial institutions.

The event concluded with an interactive quiz competition, where students of Andaman Law College performed exceptionally well and winning all ten prizes announced by the RBI team.

The programme enriched students' understanding of consumer rights, financial grievance mechanisms, and the importance of transparency in the banking system.

Seminar on Vigilance & Awareness by (Prasara Bharati) AIR&DD with ALC

Andaman Law College observed Vigilance Awareness Week and conducted various competitions in collaboration with the Shipping Corporation of India Ltd. and the Andaman & Lakshadweep Harbour Works. A series of student-centric competitions and awareness activities were organised to promote the theme of integrity, transparency, and the collective fight against corruption. To mark the occasion, various competitions, including elocution, drawing and poster-making, and slogan writing, were held on the college campus. A total of 65 students enthusiastically participated, showcasing their creativity, and commitment towards building a corruption-free nation.

The themes of the competitions were aligned with national priorities. The topic for the elocution was "Role of Youth in Fighting against Corruption". The theme for the essay writing competition was "Shared Responsibility of the Youth for Viksit Bharat – 2047." The poster-making and slogan writing contests were also based on similar themes, encouraging students to express their ideas.

ALC & SLSA conducts rally to mark National Law Day

Andaman Law College, in association with the State Legal Services Authority (SLSA), Andaman and Nicobar Islands, organized a rally on 26 November 2025 to commemorate National Law Day. Teachers, staff, and students of ALC, along with paralegal volunteers of SLSA, participated in large numbers, reflecting strong enthusiasm and awareness about constitutional values. The rally was flagged off at 7:30 a.m. by the Chief Guest, Mr. Rashid Alam, Registrar, Calcutta High Court, Circuit Bench, Port Blair, at Netaji Subhash Chandra Bose Stadium. The procession then moved through the Clock Gandhi Statue, and Light House before culminating at the Andaman Law College campus. Throughout the march, students raised impactful slogans such as "Mera Samvidhan, Mera Swabhiman," creating an atmosphere of unity, pride, and civic responsibility. At the campus, students collectively read the Preamble of the Constitution, followed by the Principal administering the Preamble Pledge. To mark the occasion, a series of activities including elocution, essay writing, poster making, and slogan writing competitions were conducted. Students participated with enthusiasm, showcasing their creativity, knowledge of constitutional principles, and their commitment to the true spirit of National Law Day.
